

Step Up for Democracy

Serve as an Election Worker

Not all heroes wear capes. Be a DEMOCRACY HERO.

The North Carolina State Board of Elections and elections officials in many North Carolina counties are looking for election workers for the November 3 general election and the early voting period in October. You can protect democracy, learn how elections work and get paid in the process!

ACT NOW: Please complete the survey at <https://bit.ly/2Yh8Aj6>. If your help is needed, you will be contacted by your county board of elections.

What do election workers do?

- Staff polling places during early voting and on Election Day.
- Set up and close the voting enclosure.
- Check in voters and issue ballots.
- Assist voters upon request.

Do you qualify?

To serve as an election worker, you must be a registered voter. To check your registration status, go here: <https://vt.ncsbe.gov/RegLkup/>. To register to vote, go here: <https://www.ncsbe.gov/Voters/Registering-to-Vote>.

NOTE: The State Board of Elections is committed to protecting election workers' and voters' health and safety. Appropriate personal protective equipment will be provided, and social distancing measures and routine cleanings will occur.
